

Information Technology Services (ITS) Fact Sheet

Scope

- a. Full range of IT Services and Solutions -- meet ANY IT services-related requirement
- b. A “One Stop Shopping” vehicle—Services and Products in One Solution
- c. Full spectrum of IT System, Software, Networks, Security, Engineering, Data, Training, Management, and Other Related IT Services such as IT Consulting and Subject Matter Experts
- d. Uses All GSA multiple award schedules for maximum flexibility
- e. Access to solutions previously acquired under MISTS II, CCPL & other vehicles

Vendors

- a. 5 large businesses and 4 small disadvantaged businesses (SDB) with over 100 team partners
- b. Large businesses are teamed with 35 small businesses; SDBs teamed with 33 small businesses
- c. Primes include: EDS, General Dynamics, Lockheed Martin, Northrop Grumman Information Technology \(formerly Litton-PRC\), Northrop Grumman Mission Systems \(formerly TRW\), RSIS, Sumaria Systems, Multimax, CENTECH
- d. For specific vendor information select links above or see “IT2 - Information Technology Services” under the Contracts tab on this site (<https://AFWay.af.mil>)

Features

- a. Fast, Efficient, Streamlined Acquisition Vehicle – COTS defined service solution or Government defined capability (SOO/SOW); Oral Proposal or Written Proposal; structure order to requirement
- b. Access to multiple schedule holders and schedule categories under a single order
- c. Five year BPA term; no order limit
- d. Uses task order competition to assure best pricing
- e. Established Guaranteed GSA Schedule discounts by region

Ordering (Decentralized)

- a. Proposal request and placement of orders by local contracting offices
- b. Ordering office will provide guidance for base/system/network access and support
- c. HQ SSG/AQIV contracting support may be available under limited circumstances, contact ITS PM

Modular Contracting

- a. Separately pricing project requirement components may allow ordering offices to award task orders incrementally and establish longer term project partnerships; improved lifecycle cost information
- b. Increments/options can be by time period, project phase, development spiral, implementation phase, site, unit of work, etc. or a combination of the above; government or vendor defined units
- c. When priced options no longer meet need and additional work added is outside of scope of original competed order, the new work must be competed

HQ SSG/AQIV Support Team:

ITS Project Manager – Cornelia Lucas, DSN 596-1108, Commercial 334-416-1108
ITS Project Manager – David Schmitt, DSN 596-1355, Commercial 334-416-1355
ITS Project Manager – MSgt Scott Reeves, DSN 596-6320, Commercial 334-416-6320
Contracting Officer – Maria Jones, DSN 596-3112, Commercial 334-416-3112
Contract Specialist – Alice Watkins, DSN 596-1649, Commercial 334-416-1649
Contracting Officer – Denise Baylor, DSN 596-3137, Commercial 334-416-3137
Program Manager – Sharon Wallis, DSN 596-4169, Commercial 334-416-4169
Team E-mail – ITServices.BPA@gunter.af.mil, Team Fax - DSN 596-7795, Com 334-416-7795